DETAILED ACTION

Claims 9-23 are pending in the application.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 9-15, drawn to a CHO cell comprising an expression vector comprising a promoter which is active in CHO cells driving the expression of a recombinant product protein and further comprises a portion from murine IgG 2A gene which enhances the activity of the promoter, and a method of producing a recombinant product protein by culturing said CHO cells.

Group II, claim 16, drawn to a CHO cell comprising a mammalian expression vector comprising a first transcription unit with a product gene under the control of mCMV promoter, and a second transcription unit comprising a glutamine synthetase marker gene.

Group III, claims 17-22, drawn to an expression vector comprising a first transcription unit with a product gene under the control of mCMV promoter, and a second transcription unit comprising a glutamine synthetase marker gene.

Group IV, claim 23, drawn to a method of using 17 for enhancing the transfection rate in CHO cells.

PCT Rule 13.2 requires that unity of invention exists only when the shared same or corresponding technical feature is a contribution over the prior art. The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept because they lack the same or corresponding special technical feature. The "special technical feature" of Group I is a CHO cell comprising a vector that comprises a portion of the murine IgG 2A gene locus DNA, which not shared by the rest of the groups. The special technical feature of Group II is a CHO cell comprising a mammalian expression vector comprising a first transcription unit for a product gene and a second transcription unit comprising a glutamine synthetase marker gene, which is not shared by the remaining groups. The special technical feature of Group III is a comprising a mammalian expression vector comprising a first transcription unit for a product gene under the control of mCMV, and a second transcription unit comprising a glutamine synthetase marker gene, which is not share by the remaining groups. The special technical feature of Group IV is a method of using 17 for enhancing the transfection rate in CHO, which is not shared by the remaining groups. As such, the technical feature of each group is different, and cannot link the invention as a whole to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Therefore, the unity of invention does not exit between the claims of Groups I-IV.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Celine X. Qian Ph.D. whose telephone number is 571-272-0777. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:30-6:00 M-F.
